1. In early August 1953 the North Korean Government announced the collection of a local tax for the purpose of financing local government organizations, and easing financial conditions which had arisen as a result of the reconstruction program throughout North Korea.<sup>1</sup> The taxes were levied through the ri People's Committees. Farmers suffered under the new tax. Because of a large crop the price of rice and other cereals had fallen.
2. Families whose members fled to South Korea were taxed at a higher rate, because they were branded as anti-Communist. One family in Hakkyo-dong<sup>2</sup> (N 37-52, E 126-16) (BS-5994) with members in South Korea was taxed 30 bags of rice and 25,000 North Korean won. The family was cultivating 3,000 p'yong<sup>3</sup> of rice field and 1,000 p'yong of dry field.
